

ARTICLE XI
INTERNATIONAL OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The International officers shall be as follows:

...

The President-Elect shall be elected annually at the International convention from among those members in good standing in Cosmopolitan International who have previously held at a minimum the office of Federation Governor or International Officer. The President-Elect shall assume the office of President at the next occurring International convention following his/her election. The Vice President for Membership and New Clubs shall be elected annually at the International convention from among those members in good standing in Cosmopolitan International who have previously held at a minimum the office of Club President or has experience and expertise in this area of responsibility. The Vice President for Finance shall be elected annually at the International convention from among those members in good standing in Cosmopolitan International who have previously held at a minimum the office of Club President or has experience and expertise in this area of responsibility. The Vice President for Marketing and Fundraising shall be elected annually at the International convention from among those members in good standing in Cosmopolitan International who have previously held at a minimum the office of Club President or ~~Executive Director~~ has experience and expertise in this area of responsibility.

...

New language proposed to be added = BOLD

Language to be removed = ~~Strikeout~~.

REASONING. This proposed amendment to the Cosmopolitan International Bylaws is being recommended to the membership by the International Board as approved at its meeting on July 28, 2018. The purpose of the change is to have the best possible candidates eligible to serve as International Officers for the betterment of the organization, and to give the membership a year to discuss and consider this proposed change.